

Proper Management of Employees' Social Media Activity

Learn How Employee Social Media Use Can Affect Your Business!

Program Overview

This presentation is designed to assist employers with the proper management of employees' ever-increasing use of social media. Attendees will be advised about the laws which govern employers' ability to control employees' social media use, and will be exposed to legal rulings on actual cases which have addressed social media use by employees. Attendees will also be provided with model language for potential social media use policies, as well as practical tips for compliance with applicable laws.

Learning Objectives

- Limitations and authority an employer has to address employees' use of social media.
- Legal rulings which have addressed employees' use of social media.
- Model language which can be included in a social media policy to remain compliant with applicable law.
- Practical tips for dealing with employees' use of social media.
